

PLAYLAND

NOT-AT-THE-BEACH

Laughing Sal Doll – If you ever visited Whitney’s Playland in San Francisco, you saw and heard Laughing Sal in the front window of the Fun House. Now she is yours to take home! Sal stands over 18” tall, wears the familiar outfit, and has a push button for turning the laugh on (and off). Powered by easily replaced AA batteries, Sal is sure to charm her way into everyone’s hearts (or nightmares). We have only ordered 250 of these hand made dolls, and we are down to the last ones. When they are gone, they are gone! Be sure to get yours now.

“Chutes at the Beach” Antique Blotter –

Own a piece of history! Recently, a small box of vintage, never before used blotters that were printed in the early 1920s surfaced. These 4” by 9 1/2” blotters were created by the Friedle Family as Xmas presents in approximately 1923. Here is your opportunity to support our museum. Don’t delay—very limited supply!

“Playland” Poster- Created by San Francisco artist Leo Mora, this 40” by 11” poster is available in very limited supply. Printed professionally on high gloss paper, rolled in a tube. Purchase a copy signed by the artist for just $20 dollars more!
